

Data Protection Information

The present data protection information concerns the users of the website any.hu and the services available thereat, as data subjects. The purpose of the data protection information is that ANY Biztonsági Nyomda Nyrt., 1102 Budapest, Halom utca 5. Tel: +361 431 1200, Fax: +361 431 1220, e-mail: info@any.hu hereinafter: 'Controller') may inform the data subjects regarding the processing of the data received.

As the data subject may decide freely whether to use the service, the data and information required for the use of such service are freely given.

The controller, the scope of the data processed, the purpose of processing

The controller is ANY Biztonsági Nyomda Nyrt., 1102 Budapest, Halom utca 5 Tel: +361 431 1200, Fax: +361 431 1220, e-mail: info@any.hu

In case of newsletter subscription we handle e-mail addresses only.

When visiting the any.hu pages registration or providing your personal data is not necessary and there is no option to do this.

When you choose to visit our website, data such as the IP address (the internet protocol address of your computer), the date, the visited sites and other technical data are logged as well. All this happens on an anonymous basis, therefore such data may not be linked with you, neither now nor in the future. We do not analyse data, they serve exclusively statistical purposes. After the statistical analysis – which we use to ascertain how many visitors we have and how we may ensure the appropriately prompt functioning of our sites – we erase the data.

In case you would like to know more, you may request detailed information in writing via any of the contacts specified at the end of the present Policy, to which we will by all means respond.

Method and duration of data management

Data management is carried out by the Controller through its own IT system, on servers it owns or leases. In addition, data may be temporarily stored on other computers of the Controller as well.

The duration of the processing of visitor data lasts until the log files are processed, the latter being stored for up to a year.

With respect to the data you have provided, our company is the 'Controller' whilst you are the 'data subject'. Your data remains to be yours. The data remains at your disposal at all times. You may decide what may and may not happen to your data.

It is important to note that the services, including, in particular, orders and deliveries are possible only if we have at least the name and address necessary for invoicing, and one contact information available. This is why we require certain personal data at registration. We may not use this information for any purposes other than serving you.

Data provided to us is processed exclusively by us, we do not, and may not, transfer it to others. We only use data for the purposes we have received it for. Should you have questions, you may enquire at any time via the contact details provided herein

We use only the data provided by you and listed hereat. During the use of the system, further data are generated, but these may not be linked with you afterwards. These are data regarding the sites of ours you have visited, the number of times you have logged into our system and the operations carried out therein. We need these so that our system may be used more conveniently. There are certain data which we are obliged to store for tax-related reasons (e.g. invoicing data).

We store personal data in an IT system, and only until necessary, that is for the duration of the registration. Personal data are not printed or disclosed to anybody, neither orally nor through other means.

Data protection

In order to avoid the unauthorized use of the processed personal data and related misuse, the Controller applies extensive technical and operational security measures. Our security processes are regularly reviewed and developed in line with technological advancement.

To ensure the protection of data, we maintain a system and control mechanism of appropriate security standards. Our IT systems are highly protected; our servers operate at well-protected locations. They are regularly reviewed by qualified professionals, so called certifying companies, to assess whether they comply with the necessary security requirements.

Access to own data

The data subject may get information about his/her stored personal data at dpo@any.hu and may also request information via any of the Controller's contacts according to relevant law.

You have the right to enquire at any time regarding your data we store.

Data transfer, further recipients

We do not transfer the data of data subjects to third parties neither within the European Economic Area nor outside thereof

We do not transfer data to anybody else.

Automated decision-making

Our system does not automatically create a profile, provide a quote or determine a discount based on the visitor data of the data subject.

The system does not automatically provide a discount without us informing you and you may not be placed in a more detrimental position.

Removal, correction and limitation

You have right to remove, correct or limit the usage of your personal data. In case of question please write to the dpo@any.hu e-mail address.

You have the right by law to ask any correction, modification, remove or limitation upon your personal data. In case you have any question regarding your rights, please write us.

Data Protection Officer

At the ANY Biztonsági Nyomda corporate group, a group-level data protection officer (Corporate Level DPO) is appointed. His tasks include providing information to clients and ensuring uniform compliance with the provisions of the GDPR on a group level. Contact details of the data protection officer: Mihály Iszály, e-mail: dpo@any.hu.

The Data Protection Officer is the person serving as our contact person specifically in data protection matters. He may be contacted directly at any time via the contact details provided herein.

Enforcement of rights

You may lodge a complaint at us with respect to data management or any element thereof, at the controller via a complaint addressed to the data protection officer, to which we will reply as soon as practicable (contact information). Should you wish to indicate your problems to other bodies, you may turn to your respective national data protection authority within the European Union, or the Hungarian National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (postal address: 1530 Budapest, Pf.: 5. address: 1125 Budapest, Szilágyi Erzsébet fasor 22/c Phone: +36 (1) 391-1400 Fax: +36 (1) 391-1410 E-mail: ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu)

If you are not satisfied with the way your data is processed or you become aware of an irregularity, you may lodge a complaint with us, or the authority via the contacts indicated herein.
