

The Printing House won a two-year contract for tax stamps production

Budapest, December 20, 2011 – The consortium led by Állami Nyomda Nyrt. has signed a contract with the National Tax and Customs Administration for the production of tax stamps for a two-year period.

The consortium of Állami Nyomda Nyrt. and Pénczjegynyomda Zrt. won the tender procedure conducted by the Central Office of the National Tax and Customs Administration, for the production of tax stamps in 2012 and 2013. Net value of the contract concluded on December 19, 2011 amounts to nearly HUF 1.8 billion. Several hundreds of millions of tax stamps will be delivered by the consortium led by Állami Nyomda between January 1, 2012 and December 31, 2013, and this quantity may be changed between -35% to +25% according to the Customers' demands.

'We have been producing tax stamps for sixteen years. Due to the products certifying payment of excise duty and including specific security solutions, the number of abuses causing damages to the budget has considerably decreased. Besides the experience we obtained over several decades, our international certificates and developments related to the reduction of falsifications offer the guarantee for the high security level.' - said Gábor Zsámboki, CEO of Állami Nyomda.
