

GVH investigation at ANY Security Printing Company

January 24, 2014 Budapest – GVH (Hungarian Competition Authority) initiated proceeding against the Company due to suspected violation of market competition restrictions, affecting customer orders with less than 3% of the ANY Security Printing Company's annual sales.

Starting the proceeding of the Authority does not mean the fact of violating the law. ANY Security Printing Company fully co-operates with the Authority in order to provide relevant information on the management of the Company and to ensure absolute transparency.

ANY Security Printing Company PLC

formerly State Printing Company Plc.