

The Printing Company Has Won a Two-Year Contract for Excise and Tax Stamps Production

Budapest, 7th January, 2016 – The consortium led by ANY Security Printing Company has signed a contract with the National Tax and Customs Administration of Hungary for the production of excise and tax stamps for a two-year period.

The consortium of ANY Security Printing Company PLC (former State Printing Company) and Hungarian Banknote Printing Shareholding Company won the tender procedure conducted by the Central Office of the National Tax and Customs Administration for the production of excise and tax stamps. Net value of the contract for two years is nearly HUF 3.5 billion.

“The Company has been participating in the production of domestic tax stamps for 20 years. Besides continuously growing export sales, reaching almost 39% ratio, the Printing Company renews its domestic, long-term contracts as well year by year. The Company’s stable and efficient operation is ensured by document security and information technology developments meaning a competitive edge in the future as well, not only in the Hungarian, but also in the Central-Eastern-European and in the African markets.” – said Gábor Zsámboki, Chief Executive Officer of ANY Security Printing Company.
