

Tamás Karakó has become Chief Financial Officer

Budapest, 2 January, 2017 – Tamás Karakó, the Financial Director of ANY Security Printing Company PLC has been promoted to Chief Financial Officer from 1 January, 2017.

Tamás Karakó has been working for the Company since 2003. Earlier he worked as a manager for Audit Department of Ernst&Young. He started his carrier at the Printing Company as a controlling director and after entering the stock exchange he became IR as well. Based on the assessment of Portfolio.hu, domestic investment companies elected him the best IR among companies listed on Budapest Stock Exchange. From 2008 he was promoted to Financial Director of the Company. Among companies belonging to ANY Group, he is member of the Board of Directors of the Romanian Zipper and chairman of Supervisory Board of Specimen Zrt. Currently Tamás Karakó does not possess any common shares issued by ANY Security Printing Company.

“Tamás Karakó is an economist, chartered accountant and has IFRS qualification in accounting, professional with brokerage exam, who has been taking part in financial operation of the Printing Company for 13 years. During this period the Company’s sales revenues doubled. This promotion shows that economic aspects, prudent and transparent economy play a significant role at the Printing Company in the future as well.” – added Gábor Zsámboki, Chief Executive Officer of ANY Security Printing Company PLC.

ANY Security Printing Company PLC