

Dr. István Ignác is the new Chief Security Officer of the Printing Company

3rd January, 2019 – Dr. István Ignác has been appointed to Chief Security Officer of ANY Security Printing Company. Ferenc Berkesi, former Chief Security Officer remains member of the Supervisory Board of the Company.

Dr. István Ignác started his professional career in state administration after finishing the Academy of Police Officers and the University of Miskolc Faculty of Law. After appointing him major-general he worked for the Ministry of Justice and Law Enforcement, then he became the chairman of Central Office for Administrative and Electronic Public Services (KEKKH). He has been retired as deputy under-secretary responsible for administration of the Ministry of Interior and joined to the management of the Printing Company. Dr. István Ignác does not hold any ANY ordinary shares currently.

ANY Security Printing Company PLC