

The consortium of Hungarian Banknote Printing Company and ANY Security Printing Company continues to supply documents

3rd of March 2022. – NISZ National Infocommunications Service Company entrusted the consortium of Hungarian Banknote Printing Company and ANY Security Printing Company with the production and personalisation of Hungarian documents for the next 9 years.

The contract concluded by NISZ Zrt. with the consortium of Hungarian Banknote Printing Company and ANY Security Printing Company PLC for the production of Hungarian security documents and accessories classified in document protection category “A”, “B” and “C”, and products not categorized as security documents and for the provision of additional services is in force from 1 March 2022. The contract is valid until 31 December 2030 and the maximum amount eligible for use is HUF 115 billion, depending on the number of document requests from citizens. Based on the contract the consortium continues to produce and personalise passports, electronic identity cards, driving licences, vehicle registration cards, official address cards, birth-, death- and other certificates and vehicle licences among others.

ANY Security Printing Company PLC